Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The New Epoch and the University: Oration Delivered Before the Phi Beta Kappa Society in Sanders Theatre, Cambridge, Thursday, June 25, 1896 A year ago, on a very different occasion, I spoke of a subject which had impressed me deeply, and traced the effect which developments, amounting to the opening of a new epoch in civilization, are having on the profession to which I belong. I felt that my task was incomplete, and that the influence of these developments on education was equally important. An opportunity is now offered to consider this influence. Beginning with a review of the conditions which have so impressed me, as the only way by which I can emphasize the importance of the events through which we are now passing, I would give you an engineers idea of the duties of a university in this new epoch. The early development of the human race has been divided into ethnical periods, representing successive conditions of savagery and barbarism, which culminated in civilization. Students of this subject recognize three periods of savagery,...
