Excerpt: . . . 11 it needs to more effectively protect consumers against individuals who insert hateful, offensive, misleading or simply unauthorized messages or pictures into the packages of consumer products. While we are fully supportive of the bill, we would like to suggest a modification to improve its effectiveness. We would recommend that the subcommittee insert the phrase or on so that the bill would cover situations in which these materials are placed on the package, not just in the package. In our experience, there have been a number of such incidents, and we believe that conduct should be prohibited as well. Mr. Chairman, the bill could help us address the problem in a manner that is narrowly tailored to address the sort of harm we have been seeing in the past few years and prevent these product tamperers from commandeering a cereal box as...
