Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Addresses and Journal of Proceedings of the National Educational Association, 1872 The Association was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M., Tuesday, August, 22, 1871, by the President, Hon. J. L. Pickard, Superintendent of the Public Schools of Chicago. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Daniel Read, President of the University of Missouri. His Excellency, Governor Brown, on behalf of the State, and of the city of St. Louis extended a cordial welcome to the Association in the following address. Address of Welcome by his Excellency, Governor Brown. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Association: In the name and behalf of the people of Missouri, I desire to extend to you a most cordial, hospitable welcome. They appreciate the compliment your selection indicates of this, the great city of the West, as the local point of educational labor, and I am sure that intercourse with our scholars and our citizens generally will elicit great sympathy and encouragement in your work. Indeed, I shall not go too far in saying that nowhere in the valley of the Mississippi will you find more of interest centring in the cause of right education than here. The public schools of the city of St. Louis are models of efficient organization and munificent foundation. Its universities, academics and many of its private institutions are exciting attention in distant quarters by the extent of their curriculum and their admirable management. And then, again, the state itself has been liberal in provision, and scrupulously faithful in maintaining its trust, to offer the means of education to every child within its border. A large permanent fund stands safely invested to that...
