Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What if you were given the opportunity to have 100 vocal freedom. An opportunity to say whatever it is that you ve always wanted to say, but probably never could, or probably never WOULD, because your friends, family, associates and even your enemies would think differently of you should they know the inner workings of your true mind . We try to maintain our facades as best we can in life, why would we share our secrets and let strangers see the real us ? But, what if somehow you could? What if someone gave you a blank canvas to say anything; everything; that you ve been bottling up for your entire life? What would you say to the world, about the world, if no one knew the anonymous voice speaking belonged to you? On a whim, I purchased a journal and began an experiment filled with uncertainty and personal conflict and began The Chain Mail Diaries. Little did I know, the $8.00 investment I made into a blank book would lead me on the most unexpectedly grand adventure of my life.back then I had little faith in myself; but even less faith in the world or the other people living in it alongside me. That was then. This is now. Things have changed for me since that time in my life. Well, actually things have changed since I received my diary back after I left it abandoned in a parking lot for a chance stranger to discover and either choose, or deny, to participate in this project with me.after it had been circulated around to God knows where and was read or written in by God knows...
