THE EAGLE HAS CRASHED

Clear Peak Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 298 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. As the economy chugs along in the spring of 2029, a welder in Columbus, Ohio loses his job along with dozens of coworkers. A Columbus-based airline unexpectedly files for bankruptcy protection. Across the nation unemployment jumps and economic growth mysteriously slows. Policymakers in Washington think its just a blip. Even though the blip causes revenues to decline pushing dangerously high national debt even higher they do nothing, thinking that the economy will bounce back in a month or two. They couldnt have been more wrong. The Eagle Has Crashed is the story of the day when Americas national debt leads to an economic collapse, and the anger that erupts at policy makers for causing a disaster. Most of The Eagle Has Crashed takes place in central Ohio, and it documents the differing reactions of ordinary Americans to a government-induced calamity. As the economic meltdown caused by excessive federal debt worsens, it brings out the best and worst in ordinary Ohioans and Americans across the land. What people are saying about The Eagle Has Crashed: The Eagle Has Crashed is a compelling novel! Ted Lacksonens fictional account of a gigantic debt crisis in America has many teaching moments for all Americans. It will leave you pondering what you can do to help fix our current mess. Steve Laffey, author of Primary Mistake and producer of the documentary Fixing America Ted Lacksonens scenario of a bleak US economic future is based on quite conventional forecasts. If anything, I would say Lacksonen is too optimistic in his projections. Economist Dr. Robert P. Murphy The Eagle Has Crashed is the provocative title of Ted Lacksonens first novel. Known as The Country Thinker on the Internet, Mr. Lacksonen has written a tale of what...
