THE FACE OF EVIL BOOK: THE TRANSFORMING POWER OF UNCONDITIONAL LOVE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Face Of Evil The Autobiography based on the life of Columbus C. Cooper III. A former 3 strikes ex-convicted felon, who s past life include s a 30 year criminal life history entangled within the criminal justice system, a former welfare recipient, ex-gang member, sex and drug substance abuser and addict of over 25 years. Columbus would Later become a christian and senior pastor of over 15 years, a self employed small business operator, within the same west texas community where law enforcement officials previously denied and protested his return due to his years of terrorizing the small city of Odessa Texas. The bible say s: With God all things are possible God would reveal unto me, how there would be many men, women and youth of whom he would send to cross my path, who would be trapped within the very same horrible nightmarish, hopeless and miserable lifestyle, circumstances and situations in which I myself had once been trapped within for almost 30 year s of my own life. These people and I would be capable of deeply and intimately relating one unto another in ways these upstanding, noble, men and women in ministry could not, as a direct result of what I have and continue to personally experience God doing within my own life. Unlike a personal eye witness are those witnesses whose witness account is based upon second hand knowledge and or based upon the account of what they have heard about God. I therefore could be an eye witness for God, a witness unlike those who have never personally seen nor experienced, the likes of which I have personally seen and experienced...
