Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Girl From Home: A Story of Honolulu It is strange to think, said the younger woman as the two stood leaning over the railing of the ship, that this beautiful land will be my home. I may spend a whole long lifetime in this country that is so new to me now. Your future home is prettier than this, said her friend. The Huapala plantation is on another island - Maui. You will have a waterfall for a near neighbour, high mountains and a view that cannot be beaten in the whole kingdom. I have often thought, said Florence, that the more noble and awe-inspiring nature is, the more lonely you feel. Well, you will have company, too - any number of agreeable men riding in to see you from the other plantations - nice, clean Englishmen, mostly younger sons. There won't be many women, but I guess you can stand that - I could. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
