Excerpt: . . . not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. --M. S. An extract from a letter to one interested in the question of meat-eating: The question of meat-eating is not one of right or wrong, or upon which we should make arbitrary laws for other people to observe. The question of right and wrong applies to the taking of life, and laws should be made by the individual for himself alone. But, A better way show I unto you. If one desires to unfold spiritually, and do this as rapidly as possible, that one should avail himself of all the aids at his command, and one of the greatest physical and mental aids is the abstinence from all flesh foods. Whatever the people of the Bible times did or did not do, we have proven that when we do not clog our systems with the grosser foods, the mind works much more clearly, and we are in better condition to understand and to receive the things of the Spirit. However, there is plenty of evidence in the Bible, that meat-eating is not justified. If we can get past the horror of killing, there is another fact which makes flesh-eating unprofitable, and this is, that we take upon ourselves the mental states of the animal, and also that there are poisons in the flesh of animals which...
